When: 7 p.m., April 18
Where: Oakstone Academy
900 Club Dr., Westerville
Who: John R
Topics: Alexander's descendants

April presentation

While it is relatively well known that Alexander the Great, in his conquest of the Persian Empire, reached as far east as northern India before his army would go no farther: it is less well known that that far corner of the world would retain a vibrant Hellenistic culture lasting more than three centuries. These descendants of Macedonian and Greek colonists would go on to produce some of the most remarkable coins of the Hellenistic era. - John.

March presentation

Gerald Tebben discussed the relationship between coins and taxes. You need one to pay the other. Taxation dates back almost to the beginning of time. In the Bible, taxation shows up 47 chapters into Genesis when Joseph of the coat of many colors imposes a tax of 20 percent of the harvest.

Raffle

April raffle will be TWO coins, ONE winner. A pair of 1983 P and S Olympic Commemorative Silver Dollars, ICG MS-69. These are both special-edition holders signed by Elizabeth Jones, chief engraver. Tickets are $1 each; 6 for $5; 13 for $10. Please help me to purchase nice coins! Buy extra tickets! -- Gary

Ohio State Show Silent Auction

Consignment to the silent auction is open to all regular year round CONA members. A $1.00 per lot set-up fee will be collected when the lots are surrendered which is required by the July meeting. A 10% sellers fee is assessed if the lot sells however there is no buy back fee if it does not.

The value of auction lots should range from $10 to $250. We do realize that gold coins will have a higher value than $250. Remember: there is a 10 % seller's fee, so for lots valued at more than $250, consignment should be discussed with Steve B  the auction committee chairperson.

The consigner is responsible for ensuring that all consignments are genuine, properly described and graded. Lots should have a minimum starting bid of $5. For certified coins, it should be no more than the amount in the Coin Dealer Newsletter (CDN).

Members who would like to consign should turn in their list by the June meeting and it may contain up to 20 items. Please include the following information: name, phone # and/or email. The committee will select from the list and contact the consigner to arrange for the transfer of the required coins. Consignors may have the opportunity to submit additional lots if deemed appropriate by the committee.

$500,000 Counterfeiting Ring Believed Smashed; 3 Arrested

NATIONAL

SEATTLE (AP) — Three Washington state men were behind bars yesterday charged with being ringleaders of a half-million-dollar counterfeiting ring.

An ex-convict also was under arrest as a "passer."

The secret service said the ring was cracked last week. A spokesman estimated that $20,000 of the bogus $20 federal reserve notes is in circulation. A total of $477,800 was recovered in California, Nevada and Washington.

Thomas B. Parks, 41, of Zillah, Wash., accused as one of the principals, was scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop 27 in Buena, Wash., and an adviser to Scout Cub Pack 27, also of Buena.

THE TWO others, Arthur Francis Gushen, 39, of Seattle, and James L. Buderus, 31, of Seattle and Santa Clara, Calif., were arraigned yesterday afternoon.

The three men had been associated in a fallout shelter business that failed.

U.S. Commissioner Donald Constantine set bail for Buderus at $25,000 at his arraignment in San Francisco. Buderus' wife, Janet, wept as she heard her husband charged with manufacture and possession of counterfeit currency. He was unable to post bond.

Gushen was brought before U.S. Commissioner Walter Reseburg Jr., here and had his bond set at $21,000 on counts of possessing and passing counterfeit notes in Phoenix, Ariz., Jan. 11, and Los Angeles Dec. 11, and of making bogus money here last month.

GUSHEN said he was without funds and could not supply bail or hire a lawyer. His wife, Eileen, was too upset to accompany him into the hearing rooms.

Parks, being held in the Yakima County jail, is scheduled to be arraigned in Yakima this afternoon.

Patrick O'Reilly, 35, an ex-convict whose arrest in Sacramento Jan. 16 helped to break the case, was arraigned there last week on a charge of possessing counterfeit money.

NORMAN Sheridan, special agent in charge of the Spokane, Wash., Secret Service office, said a fifth man, Richard Daire, 24, of Sunnyside, Wash., would appear as a material witness in the case.

The printing press and ink used in the counterfeiting were found in the Sunnyside office of the R & B Distributing Co., the defunct fallout shelter sales company, and $52,000 of the bills was turned over by Daire, a nephew of Buderus. Daire said he had been keeping the money for Buderus in his home.

Prescott H. Manning, in charge of the Seattle Secret Service office, said Gushen had signed a statement he prevailed on Buderus and Parks last fall to go in with him on the counterfeiting scheme.

MANNING said Gushen came here from Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, in August and the ring rented an apartment. Thin aluminum sheets were etched by a photo - engraving process to print the phony money on a circular - type press in the R & B Distributing Co. headquarters a few blocks away. Buderus was president of the firm, Parks manager and Gushen a salesman.

After about $500,000 worth had been run off Gushen destroyed the plates, Manning said, and Buderus shipped the press and ink to Sunnyside.

Murder Conviction Of Women Is Upheld

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The U.S. Court of Appeals yesterday affirmed the murder conviction and death penalty of Elizabeth Duncan for the "murder for hire" slaying of her daughter-in-law.

The court said that it did not have jurisdiction to entertain most of the arguments presented by Mrs. Duncan's attorney-son Frank, husband of the murder victim, in her behalf.

His principal argument was that adverse publicity before and during the trial deprived her of a fair proceeding.
